(INTRO) Celebrate the differences, Between you and me
Instead of banging heads against the wall

(DRUMS)

(1) Ooh, I want to make it clear, That I'm with you for the long run
And it's obvious you're there with me, too, But let me say, that
Ooh, When we're on the outs, And we're bound, to, scream and shout
We drive each one insane, But no one is to blame

(CHORUS) Celebrate the differences, Between you and me
Instead of banging heads against the wall
We were brought together, For a reason, you and me
We are not the same, So let's celebrate our differences

(2) Ooh, There's an underlying bond, That always gets us through the hard times
Though we've pushed it to the limit, before, But we've always made it back
Ooh, When we're having doubts, And asking what's, this, all about
There's a reason why we're here, And it gets us through the tears

(CHORUS)

(SOLO)

(CHORUS) Celebrate the differences, Between you and me
(1/2) Instead of banging heads against the wall

(CHORUS) (2 X)
